Travesty of justice as Jewish Pressure Group crucify White Nationalist. . . .by Peter Rushton

After a three-day trial, London Forum founder Jez Turner was convicted and sentenced on Monday 14th May to 12 months imprisonment for offences against Britain's notorious race laws.

Mr Turner's 'offence' dated back to 2015 when he spoke at a demonstration in Whitehall against the special Jewish police force known as Shomrim. (This illegal and racially exclusive police force had already attracted opposition from several senior police officers) When Shomrim first began to appear in North London in 2008, then Hackney Borough commander Steve Dann said: "I am very upset that no-one has approached me about this. It has been done behind my back. I see this as a slight against us, that we are not providing a service."

In 2010 Dann's successor in Hackney, Steve Bending said: "I do not support the concept of any community having their own patrol service. There is a risk of other communities feeling intimidated by this course of action."

So upset was Bending that he left the Metropolitan Police and emigrated to the United Arab Emirates.

Jez Turner of the London Forum: an ex-serviceman with an unblemished record, today sentenced to 12 months

Later in 2010 the Met's borough commander in Barnet, another area where Shomrim were becoming active, also criticised this exclusive Jewish police force, saying: Uniformed patrols which communities are asked to pay for make me extremely nervous.

Yet Mr Turner's criticism of Shomrim has today been criminalised. The Metropolitan Police and the Crown Prosecution Service had at first not thought to prosecute him for the 2015 speech, but relentless pressure was exerted by the 'Campaign Against Antisemitism' and the Community Security Trust, an ultra-Zionist lobby group whose founders were part of the violent Jewish 62 Group, which also spawned Searchlight magazine.

In a sense this was a CST prosecution, not a Crown prosecution. We now know who rules 21st century Britain. Meanwhile on the very same day as Mr Turner was imprisoned, the Zionist state shamelessly slaughtered another 55 Palestinians, a crime which will go unpunished – in fact simply drawing attention to this mass murder will itself be judged a crime, unless anyone who dares criticise the Jewish state weighs his words very carefully.

Mr Turner's barrister Adrian Davies gave a brilliant summing up of the defence case last Friday, which might have weighed in the mind of Judge David Tomlinson (son of Mary Poppins actor David Tomlinson). The judge's interventions had been crudely hostile early in the case, but his own summing up today was far more fair.

I will be writing later in more detail about the Jez Turner case and its implications. For now we shall simply say this: certain individuals have engaged in a disgraceful campaign of personal slurs against Jez Turner, even while he was facing trial and imprisonment.

This treason from within the so-called nationalist movement will not be forgotten nor forgiven!

THE SHOMRIM - THE JEWISH PRIVATE POLICE FORCE

On hearing the sad news that Jez Turner has been sentenced to a year in prison, for 'incitement to racial hatred' - for simply speaking publicly of things which can be seen on the internet by anyone who cares to look. In fact, there are hundreds of images and articles on the subject, but, evidently, drawing people's attention to it is now a 'crime'!

The matter refers to a certain group of people who dress in 'police' uniforms and drive around in 'police' cars, both of which look remarkably similar to conventional police officers. They also hand out leaflets and put up signs dictating what people can and can't do in those areas. Although the name they use is not 'police', I would defy any sane person to tell the difference between them and ordinary police officers. They are clearly committing the REAL crime of impersonating police officers, and they're getting away with it. Jez Turner simply told the truth about it and he is being pilloried for it.

A British Police car protecting our people? No, wrong, this is a SHOMRIM police car illegally posing as a police car and roaming the Jewish areas

The SHOMRIM is an organisation which is designed to protect the interests of the Jewish Community in England, and its followers patrol the streets in parts of London, just as other foreigners do in what THEY call 'Sharia Zones'. In today's Britain, it appears to be acceptable for aliens and their offspring to say and do anything they choose, with impunity, whilst the indigenous English, Scottish, Welsh and Irish people are not allowed to say or do anything to 'offend' those people, protected as they are by laws which penalise the White people of Britain in favour of aliens.

HOW LONG WILL YOU ALLOW SUCH THINGS TO CONTINUE?!

YOU ARE THE SOVEREIGN MASTERS OF THESE ISLES!

Mike Whitby - brave advocate of British Common Law

Common Law, it is bad law, and it requires the politicians (as PUBLIC SERVANTS) to obtain the consent of the people, to make it law. The parliamentary tyrants claim the tacit consent of everyone who does not formally withdraw their consent, and they brutally enforce unlawful legislation. This is not democracy, it is tyranny and it will continue as long as YOU allow it to!

The reality is that under our Constitutional Law, the PEOPLE are sovereign and our monarch represents the views of the people. She is the voice of the people, and parliament merely carry out the wishes of the people. Also, if parliament enacts legislation which runs contrary to our Constitutional and

Dear Sirs,

At 7:45pm on Tuesday 3rd May 1983, old-age pensioner and NF member Albert Mariner was walking to a National Front election meeting when he was struck on the head by a brick hurled from a "mainly black" mob of rioters.

They had been mobilised by an unlawful election leaflet issued by Labour Councillors of the London borough of Haringay.

Albert was taken to hospital where he died the next day. The police refused to investigate the events which led to Albert's death. At roughly the same time, a black man walked into a police station, killed himself by blowing his own head off with a shotgun, and there was a full public inquest into the matters surrounding his death.

Repeated calls for an inquiry into Albert's murder were ignored and no-one from the Labour Party was ever even questioned about organising a mob to attack a perfectly legal election meeting. Imagine how the media would have howled and screamed if White Nationalists had killed one of the black rioters! The system's press and TV went overboard when Kevin Gately and Blair Peach, both anti-NF rioters, died after head butting police truncheons. Gately and Peach were committing crimes at the time they were fatally injured: Albert Mariner was going about his perfectly lawful business.

The System hopes that Albert is lying forgotten in his grave, but we will never forget this proud ex-serviceman, NF member and old-age-pensioner who died fighting for the country and people he loved. Thirty five years on, those of us who knew Albert still remember him and the inspiration he gave us both in life and in death. Albert was a close friend of Ian Stuart who immortalised Albert in his song Sick Society. Sadly, Ian also lost his life in the same way - murdered by the enemies of our race - ten years later.

I am glad to see that the NF maintains the 'Albert Mariner Shield' award at each AGM

The George Soros Globalist Plan continues...

A Europhile group supported by billionaire George Soros is reportedly behind a £5.6 plan to reverse Brexit in the latest shameless Remoaner push to thwart the will of the people. 'Best for Britain' is apparently hoping to raise the money from wealthy donors, saying: 'We have less than six months to stop Brexit.'

The group will have the audacity to claim that exiting the EU will put national security and risk and that Brexit is to be blame for cuts to local Councils.

Former Cabinet Minister Owen Paterson said: "The cynical plan to manipulate the British voter and stop Brexit has now been laid bare.

"Leave voters up and down the country will be disgusted that George Soros thinks he can spend his fortune to determine the direction of our great country. Most Remain voters too just want us to get on with it.

'My colleagues in Parliament, whether they were for Leave or Remain, must denounce this brazen attempt to undermine our democracy.

'Those MPs who are seeking to dilute or delay Brexit must now admit that their meaningful vote is really just their plan to stop Brexit – as this document sets out unambiguously."

And Richard Tice, of Leave Means Leave, said: "George Soros, the billionaire who does not live in the UK, will stop at nothing with his elitist friends to stop Brexit, deceitfully masking their plans as a people's vote.

'Shamefully, they want to deny the poorest in our society from benefiting the most from Brexit."

Remoaners just don't get it – the public rejected their elitist, Europhile agenda at the referendum and they won't be changing their minds any time soon.

This Time We Win! (Pages 9 to 12)

I am reprinting below the main part of a pamphlet I rewrote and updated some years ago. I think it needs a new airing as I feel the points are as valid today as when I wrote them with maybe more emphasis on the web and social net working ...apart from that, the rest is my own personal blue print to get us out of the 21st Century morass British Nationalism is in....

THE FOUR STEPS TO VICTORY

Quo vadis? Wither goest thou? We must answer! For the last three decades, we have stumbled from crisis to crisis. We have walked like blind men, down a labyrinth of snares set by the System - the System that both hates and fears us - yet at the moment laughs in our faces.

We have walked for too long without a proper road to follow. Our only notion has been to hope something will turn up.

Tactics have come and gone, discarded as failures and then picked up again and retried only to fail again - no lessons have been learned.

Parties may come and parties may go - a party label is merely a vehicle for the Eternal Idea and the fulfilment of the "Fourteen Words". As long as the idea of renewal of our race through our belief in the construction of a higher type of life through union with nature remains constant, then the vehicle, the 'party,' is just one method of bringing the idea to fruition. We cling to old, tired and useless methods, ideas and a leadership which is determined it seems to sell out White Nationalism for temporary success.

We thrash around in our frustration and seek new inspirations - a guide, a map, and new leaders. The map is there. In the past, one great nationalist movement put a carefully planned and deeply planned strategy and tactics into very real practice: It achieved a power that shook the world and has cast its long shadow over both last century and for all time to come. The role of nature in politics has been established. The road to victory consists of four main steps. These four phases are hard and grinding, but they must be followed for they are the only sure way to victory - all else is futility and waste - this time we learn! This time we win!

SMALL BEGINNINGS...

Before even the first steps can be taken and the first phase of our road to victory started, the small beginnings of building a nucleus and all the mundane tasks of establishing a new initiative, a new force in European politics must commence. This is, in many ways, the hardest time. It is inglorious. It shows no immediate gain. It needs both patience and lots of sacrifice, whilst all around your new initiative is roundly condemned as 'too radical,' 'too extremist,' etc. Be strong at this time - nothing we can do in building a new alignment and initiative can be any worse than abandoning our CORE beliefs! The small beginnings mean a hard core nucleus of totally dedicated activists in each major city and town. The small beginnings mean the hard grind of an uphill struggle to gather the means, money, men and women and material to commence Phase One....

PHASE ONE - BUILDING THE NUCLEUS

When Phase One commences it must start with an almighty burst of activity. Activity of a kind that will gain maximum publicity for minimum expense. It is a very dangerous phase in the development of a Movement. To gain publicity that will in turn bring us the members we need to build the nucleus, we need to rekindle the White Nationalist movement; we must in small numbers at first be prepared to take on great risks and face even greater odds - and the consequences that come with them.

During the first phase of our bid to achieve White Nationalist power in the UK, our younger and fitter members will be called upon to risk great danger on the streets of Britain's towns and cities. Wherever the Enemy is, there too must we be, picketing, heckling, holding rallies against a toughening opposition and everywhere tearing down the treasonous flags of the Enemy.

Continually pitching our small but hard numbers against seemingly impossible odds, we can achieve world-wide publicity and lasting glory, even with at first only a few hundred activists.

That publicity will bring us the sort of people we so sorely need; the thinking street-fighters, the men and women with little or nothing to lose, for whom every day of existence in the cuss-pit of Marxist-Liberal Britain is just another day in hell.

For every political activist hurt in a demo, getting a fine or a jail sentence, twenty tougher, no-nonsense comrades will join our ever expanding movement. It will be no picnic but, and this is the real aim of the sensationalist activity that marks Phase One - maximum publicity will be gained with small resources to achieve the goal of building a hard solid nucleus willing to sacrifice and stay with the Movement to the end. This sort of activity and rhetoric is currently condemned by the 'nationalist liberalisers' as old fashioned. It is neither old fashioned or new - it is the ONLY way we can smash through the ZOG wall of silence that will try and ignore our growth and success.

Even whilst this continued attempt at spectacular media coverage at minimum cost, many other methods of propaganda were also steadily growing and improving. In Phase One, the central nucleus of essential people - the cadre of political street soldiers - is built

PHASE TWO - CONSTRUCTING THE FRAMEWORK

When it is apparent, or even while Phase One is being completed, the Movement should have organically built itself into a situation we could describe as the second phase of development. Its main function is to fill out the nucleus with some body and has four main aims:

1. The expansion of our activist corps coupled with a more vigorous ideological training than was possible at first, although training must be in operation during all phases of development. Any White Nationalist who is to succeed must lay the greatest emphasis on political awareness at all levels of command. Units must by this time have been established in all major towns and cities. Regional centres should be ready, even if they only consist of a Regional Organiser at this point.
2. The establishment of a small full-time staff at the Central Office. The establishment of more and more material assets for the Movement - computers and printers; internet facilities; transport; premises; flags and banners; DVD production facilities and more - all the apparatus needed to back up the future expansion of the organisation. With special attention paid to dominating the World Wide Web.
3. Projecting the image of the Movement across to the general public with bigger meetings and bigger demonstrations than was possible in Phase One, utilising the enlarged activist corps.
4. Establish the early beginnings of the Movement's affiliate organisations. A start must be made during this phase of establishing the central apparatus needed for youth, trades unions, business, women's and student sections. Ideas must also be put into motion for a Movement Welfare Organisation amongst others - the beginnings of a Nationalist society within society. The long-term aim being that as the Old Order collapses, the New Order is already building itself from within the decaying and dying body...

PHASE THREE - THE NATIONAL ORGANISATION

When the party is ready to merge (again theoretically), Phase 2 into Phase 3, the units, areas and districts will be filling out and expanding rapidly in both the numbers of the units in the field and also in the larger number of activists in each unit. This much larger activist corps will then allow more ambitious targets to be considered:

1. More and more affiliate groups will come into existence, until almost every aspect of the current established order is mirrored in a healthy way by the resurgent party. The parallel society of White Nationalism will start to become a viable reality.
2. The party being able to field many thousands of activists in a constant and highly intensive programme of street demonstrations, public meetings, rallies and marches will be able to put the name and the symbols of the party and its creed continually in the public eye on a huge scale, smashing the media blackout.
3. The absorption of all the still existing and smaller Nationalist groups who have consistently failed in their duty of providing leadership for their race on terms and only on the terms of the new renaissance Movement.
4. The opening of party activity centres in every county within each region, together with a Nationalist bookshop/propaganda/social centres.
5. A very selective involvement in elections. Two major requirements must first be established to ensure maximum benefit for the Movement and the Idea. One will be the gauging of the amount of propaganda which can be drawn from the electoral exercise and the other must be that maximum effort be put into every and any election campaign, no matter how small the area of the election. If an election can only be fought that destroys supporters' morale, then it should not be fought under any circumstances. No more paper campaigns!

PHASE FOUR - THE ROAD TO POWER

This is the final phase of the expansion of the true White Nationalist Movement. It will only come after hard and harsh years of struggle. Nothing that is worth winning comes easily, and nothing is worth winning more than an assured future for our White folk, not only in Britain but all over the world. The success and application of our creed and its implementation will give impetus to the organisational apparatus of the movement and is the final and only guarantee that it will come about.

This final phase will be characterised by savage and violent attacks by the System in its death throes. In its death agonies it will throw anything and everything against us. Our enemy is the master of lies - and when lies fail they will replace them with violence. We must have, in the years preceding this bitter struggle for power, steeled the growing cadres of our Movement to exist and flourish in such an atmosphere.

Our target in this phase is power and the total destruction of the Old Order. We will have no other targets at this time. However there will be certain points that during this final time will be both strengthened and expanded:

1. The rapid expansion of our own stewarding group to protect our members, our meetings, our property and our party leaders. We cannot be sure by this time that the 'forces of law and order' will be above political pressure (are they now?) and the protection of the law may be withdrawn from White Nationalists (as had happened in the past) and actually used actively against us. We must be prepared at all times to be able to effectively protect both ourselves and the Movement.
2. Coinciding with the development and expansion of our stewarding groups will also be the need to go even more on the offensive against our enemies, of every political party, far more surely than ever before. Those who do not stand with us now are against us forever. This final phase will see the complete polarisation of the people of our country. In the end there will be no middle way - no moderation. Either the people choose the path of the Movement's revolution and freedom, or they choose its opposite - the alien controlled New World Order with all of its darkest implications. All other alternatives will go to the wall when the final battle between the forces of light and nature and the great spirit of world evil against which we have always fought.

THIS TIME WE WIN!

Despite the very factionalisation of the Nationalist forces in Britain over the last few years and despite the total disillusionment of so many good comrades of the past who have given up its great fight for the survival of our people, there is still hope! The fight will never be lost until the last White Nationalists lay down their spirits and courage and give in. That day must never come! There must be a last struggle of our folk against the Internationalist enemy and his hydra-headed minions. One last and final struggle against the eternal world enemy.

Hope breeds will and will breeds action! Let the White Nationalists of Britain, both of the old and new generations, the angry young men and women of today, be reborn and retrained in this new will to win, this new will to power!

We will learn by our past mistakes. This time we will plan and sacrifice and set ourselves a series of attainable, specific targets and goals. If we can rediscover our own faith, we can rebuild again and win. That is the message we must also carry to the thousands of already trained and waiting veteran White Nationalists waiting in the wings throughout the UK.

But the message to the new White Nationalist is just as important. They have nothing to lose, for what price jobs when there is no industry? What price comfort when the economic system is collapsing? What price a future when we can have no future under this rotten Liberal/Marxist/Capitalist System? We have nothing. We have no future. Therefore we have nothing to lose. There is a new world waiting for us - the future is ours if only we will grasp it!
